MAKING OUR MARK ON THE HEXHAM SKYLINE

WH
Ewe'll love it here!

When we embarked on The Wool House, we thought long and hard about what our typical buyer would want from apartment living in Hexham.

We sought opinions from a wide range of people to ensure we left no stone unturned in our pursuit of delivering a scheme that would significantly enhance the skyline, whilst making a valuable contribution to the quality and individuality of accommodation available.

Add to this, the fabulous location of The Wool House, right at the heart of this bustling market town, Hexham's excellent choice of shops, cultural, sporting and leisure facilities, its proximity to Newcastle, Carlisle and Edinburgh - and The Wool House certainly looks set to be an award-winning development.

In fact, there is no other residential development like it in Northumberland.

We hope you enjoy reading our development brochure and take pleasure in introducing you to The Wool House. Welcome to our fold!

Once our splendid apartment building is occupied and its communal gardens and under croft parking are in full use, it will be hard to imagine any other building ever stood here. Yet this site has an interesting story to tell.

Formerly home to the Hexham Swimming Pool complex, which many local people will remember, its real claim to fame arose in the 19th century when brothers, George and Henry Bell, launched a large tannery business here.

In fact, the Henry Bell Wool Merchants business helped put the town on the map during the 19th century. It was here that the finest and much coveted Hexham Tans gloves originated.

After the two founding brothers died, Henry's sons took over the business and turned it into one of the leading firms in the country, building a striking warehouse on this site in 1885.

With room for expansion, greater success followed, and the brothers took over two other tanneries, eventually amalgamating with eight more to become Border Counties Wool Sales Ltd.

Back to the present, the next chapter of the story began when we submitted our planning application for this exciting, contemporary scheme.

Providing luxury apartment living in the heart of Hexham and designed to take advantage of the superb views of the Abbey to the front, and of the tranquil Tyne Valley countryside looking out over Haugh Lane to the rear, The Wool House marks a new phase in the site's history.

We have taken the utmost care over the civil engineering, design and construction of this apartment building which so effortlessly combines the old with the new - even down to the way its heritage has in no small way shaped our present thinking – the name of our development and The Wool House brand - not forgetting Woolliam, our brand ambassador.

HAPPY in HEXHAM

And if the location, quality of design and construction were not enough to tempt you, the benefits of buying a home in Hexham were endorsed in a 2021 national survey of homeowners undertaken by Rightmove with its annual 'Happy at Home' index when Hexham came out on top as the happiest place to live in Great Britain.

The results revealed that residents in Hexham are the happiest based on factors including the friendliness of their neighbours, their sense of belonging, the quality of the town's local amenities and its access to open space.

While we can't help but agree with Rightmove's findings, it just goes to show that aside from living at The Wool House, there are several compelling reasons for moving to Hexham. OUT and ABOUT Hexham is a bustling market town, nestling prettily on the south bank of the River Tyne. Those who live and work in the area know that Hexham offers a unique mix of rural charm and vitality, combined with a bustling retail centre and some of the finest buildings in Northumberland.

With its historic Hexham Abbey, covered Market Place, winding streets and even a racecourse, all set upon a hillside in the picturesque Tyne Valley, Hexham is perfectly positioned for those who wish to explore the many forts and archaeological sites along Hadrian's Wall as well as the remote moors of the Northumberland National Park.

It is also located on National Cycle Route 72, sometimes called 'Hadrian's Cycleway', which is a 170-mile route connecting Ravenglass in the Lake District to South Shields on the East Coast.

And let's not forget the stunning Northumbrian coastline, famous for its beautiful sandy beaches such as Alnmouth, Warkworth and Beadnell. Drive over the causeway at low tide to visit the Holy Island of Lindisfarne – you may even wish to take a short boat trip to see the puffins at the Farne Islands.

Northumberland is also home to more castles than any other county in England - Bamburgh, Dunstanburgh, Alnwick, made even more famous by the Harry Potter films – this part of the world certainly has a fascinating history.

SUPERMARKETS and SHOPS

For everyday shopping, Hexham offers a good range of supermarkets and shops including Waitrose, Marks and Spencer, Aldi and Lidl. MAKING A Great FIRST IMPRESSION

With the wool and tannery industries so ingrained within the history of this site, we were excited to see how we could retain this theme throughout the interior designs of The Wool House.

To start, we hired the services of an award-winning interior design company, DAKOTA House of Design, whose design team have brought a definite wow factor to our entrance and lobby area, corridors, kitchens, bathrooms and living spaces.

We have chosen a neutral colour palette throughout to provide the perfect backdrop and to complement the rich tones of our timber flooring, the warmth of our plush natural wool carpeting and our careful choice of lighting to create a welcoming overall ambience.

At The Wool House, you'll discover that no two apartments are the same – logistically complex for us – but for our buyers, an apartment here means individuality, a unique floor plate and the chance to really make a statement with your new home.

If you enter the building via Gilesgate you will walk through attractively landscaped gardens with an external seating area before reaching the boutique hotel style entrance lobby with comfortable seating and planters.

Floors one to five feature a range of one and two-bedroom apartments, some with French doors and Juliet balconies. Others have patios or terraced areas.

On floor six - you will find our penthouse apartments. Here, apartment entrance doors are traditional in style with statement architraves and bronze ironmongery, while carpet runners in the same style as the reception area, are laid to the corridors. All apartments at this level benefit from superb views across the valley, or Hexham Abbey and the town centre.

Central to the design of each apartment are well-planned kitchens, bathrooms and living spaces.

Whatever you choose, you will not be disappointed at The Wool House, because there is bound to be a design that is perfect for you.
